

NOVEMBER HOME ACTIVITY: LITURGICAL YEAR FLASH CARDS

PRINT OUT THE NEXT TWO PAGES AS A ONE BACK-BACK SHEET.

CUT THE TWENTY INDIVIDUAL CARDS OUT TO MAKE ONE DECK OF CARDS.

SUGGESTION ONE:

SHUFFLE THE DECK AND HAVE SOMEONE PUT THE CARDS IN PROPER ORDER OF APPEARANCE IN THE LITURGICAL YEAR CALENDAR.

SUGGESTION TWO:

HAVE ONE PERSON SAY OR SHOW THE FRONT OF THE CARD (THE SIDE WITH THE PICTURE) AND ANOTHER NEEDS TO DESCRIBE WHAT THAT FEAST/EVENT IS.

SUGGESTION THREE:

HAVE ONE PERSON SPEAK OUT THE DESCRIPTION ON THE BACK SIDE OF THE CARD AND SOMEONE ELSE TRIES TO NAME THE FEAST/LITURGICAL EVENT.

SUGGESTION FOUR:

SHUFFLE THE CARDS AND THEN HAVE SOMEONE PUT THEM INTO GROUPS CONNECTED TO THE MAJOR SEASONS: ADVENT-CHRISTMAS SEASON CARDS; LENT-EASTER SEASON CARDS; ORDINARY TIME SEASON CARDS.

Advent

Immaculate Conception

Christmas Day

Feast of the Holy Family

Solemnity of Mary Mother of God

Mary Mother of God

Baptism of the Lord

Ash Wednesday

Passion Sunday

Holy Thursday

Good Friday

Easter Vigil

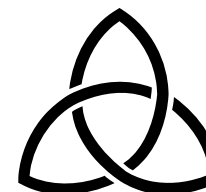

Easter Sunday

Pentecost

Trinity Sunday

Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Feast of SS. John and Paul

Assumption of Mary

Feast of All Saints

Feast of All Souls

Feast of Christ the King

January 1st: The most ancient feast honoring Mary as the mother of Jesus.

1st Sunday after Christmas which focuses on Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

December 25th: Celebrating the birth of Jesus.

December 8th: A feast of Mary celebrating that she was conceived without sin.

The 4 weeks that begin each new liturgical year as we prepare for the coming of Christ.

This is the day Jesus died on the cross and we venerate the cross.

Triduum (the three days before Easter) begins today and the Mass of the Lord's Supper is celebrated.

The official name of the Sunday before Easter, the first day of Holy Week, at which we receive blessed palms.

This day begins the season of Lent.

This feast celebrates the beginning of the public ministry of Jesus and ends the Christmas season.

The Sunday after Trinity Sunday, also called Corpus Christi, on which we celebrate Jesus' real presence in the Eucharist.

This feast day celebrates the Christian understanding that God is a perfect union of 3 persons in God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The fiftieth day after Easter when the Apostles received the gift of the Holy Spirit.

This day celebrates Jesus' resurrection from the dead.

The evening before Easter Sunday when new adults are baptized and received into the Church.

The last Sunday in Ordinary Time, which celebrates that all earthly authority must answer to Christ.

November 2: On this day we pray for all who have died, that they might share in the full joy of heaven.

November 1: We remember all the people who have lived lives of holiness and closeness to God and who are now with God in heaven.

August 15: The feast that celebrates The Blessed Virgin Mary being taken up into heaven.

June 26: This feast celebrates the martyrdom of the two brothers who our parish is named after.