Having brought the fullness of life to our world when He rose from the dead, Jesus sent his disciples to share this life with all of creation. "They went forth and preached everywhere" (Mk 16:20).

The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette minister to people of every race, language, culture and way of life — beginning at the La Salette Shrine in France where our Blessed Mother appeared in 1846. Her final words, "Well, my children, you will make this known to all my people," echo Jesus' Gospel mandate. It is little wonder that the La Salette Congregation has always been mission orientated. When called upon by the Vatican to preach the Gospel in foreign lands, they eagerly responded. This spirit brought them to mission in 27 countries, especially among the poor in Angola, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, India, Madagascar, Myanmar, and the Philippines.

With your cooperation, the Missionaries of La Salette can continue to provide spiritual and financial assistance to these mission countries as they bring God's reconciling message to the poor. Please welcome Fr. Peter Kohler as he makes his appeal and please be generous in your response.

Reflection On Daily Readings

(See page 9 for daily readings)

As we reflect on this week's daily readings we might ask to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus as we go through a day full of strong wind and waves. We can ask again and again, as things get tougher and more challenging. We might focus on what comes out of our mouths. Is there cynicism, judgments, distortions of the truth, divisive and self-serving manipulation, yelling and hurtful put-downs? How do we practice using our voice to give praise to God by affirming others, forgiving them, by telling the truth, by defending the poor and the voiceless, by giving God thanks?

We might be conscious of those we disdain or think of as "the enemy." We might ask for the grace to open our hearts to whatever faith in God they have, however different from ours. We might ask for a sense of solidarity with them, not because it is our desire or inclination, but because it is God's desire for us. How can we heal and reconcile, at least in our heart, what needs healing?

We can get in touch with the call of Jesus to deny ourselves. This is not self-denial for its own sake. This is the dying to self that comes from loving in the self-sacrificing way that Jesus did. Who in our family, friends, relative, co-workers, members of our parish needs our self-denying love? How have we focused on "gaining the world" and lost some of our true self in the process? Is there some way this week that we can taste discovering our true self in giving some time, some compassion, some love, some special care to someone who needs this from us?

Perhaps at a special time of powerlessness or some time when we feel that we don't have the energy or gifts to do the "more," to move a mountain, we can ask for faith the size of a mustard seed. And, each night we can give thanks to God for being generous to us all week, for this simple focus on our relationship every day.

There Is A Face...

With every act of violence someone suffers. We all suffer at the hand of betrayal. Domestic violence is a learned behavior that is caused by one’s partner’s need for control and power in the relationship. Factors that can contribute to the abuse are: stress, anger, alcohol, childhood experiences, and emotional, mental or physical disorders. Remember that violence is never an appropriate response to a problem.

North Macomb Career Ministry News

The North Macomb Vicariate has formed a vicariate wide initiative devoted to ministry to those who have lost a job and those who may be underemployed in the North Macomb area. This committee is made up of people with knowledge in human resources, management and job marketing, church staff and others who are unemployed and looking for work.

The general goal of this group is to be a support and resource in the areas of 1) career; 2) finances; 3) family health care; and 4) faith.

To that end, the initial focus of this faith based group is to bring in speakers to present workshops, networking opportunities and motivational sessions for those looking for help in these areas. All presentations are free of charge.

The next presentation will be at St. Therese of Lisieux on August 5, 2009 at 7:00 pm. The speaker will be Cindy Cosak. Ms. Cosak is a career counselor who will be speaking on how to handle stress and conflict in relationships resulting from job loss. St. Therese is located at 48115 Schoenherr in Shelby Twp.

Another opportunity for job seekers will be at St. Lawrence on August 5, 2009 from 9:00—10:30 am. This will be a networking opportunity where job seekers will be able to talk to employers who have job openings. Suggested attire is business casual. St. Lawrence is located at 44633 Utica Rd., Utica.

Please keep your eye on the bulletin for information regarding upcoming events sponsored by the North Macomb Career Ministry. If you have any questions or would like more information about the North Macomb Career Ministry, or if you have expertise in the areas mentioned above and would like to share your knowledge by joining this group or presenting on a related topic, please call Kathy in the parish office.

Health Notes: How to Nourish Your Soul This Summer

Summer ... it seems like the perfect time to nurture your soul. But chances are you can't pack your bags for a three-month stay at a convent or an ashram. The good news is that as schedules change and days lengthen, you can do a few simple things to renew your soul and expand your spiritual horizons – and you don't have to leave town to do it! No passport or vow of silence is required!

Follow the Light — Take advantage of the extra hours of daylight. It's a lot easier to spring out of bed at 6 a.m. when the sun is already up. Leave your bedroom curtains open a bit so that you wake up with the sunrise. Or set your alarm a half-hour earlier. Use that time for meditation and prayer, writing in a journal, or reading a devotional book. Don't expect to do this every day. Just try it one day a week and see if it feels right for you.

Enjoy the Night — When those daylight hours finally wind down, nurture your spirit under a night sky. Take a blanket in the backyard and look up at the stars. Cuddle up with your kids to look for constellations, invest in a telescope, or just gaze skyward and put your life in perspective. There's nothing like a star-filled sky to fill your soul with awe.

Eat, Drink, and Pick Berries — Summer is the season that's chock full of fresh fruits and vegetables. If you live near a farm, check to see if they'll let you pick your own produce. It's a great way to reconnect with the earth and remind yourself that dinner doesn't actually grow in the frozen food aisle. Plus, fresh fruits and veggies taste so good, you'll want to slow down and eat mindfully.

Take A Mindful Moment — We all know that nurturing your soul doesn't require a big bank account or an extended retreat. You have the power to refresh your spirit any time you like. Summer offers a great chance to step outside normal routines, and take a deep breath. Acknowledge the warmth, appreciate the light, and know that you can have a spiritual moment any time you like!

By Ansley Roan, www.beliefnet.com

“He said to them, ‘Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while’” (Mark 6:31a). So break away from the routine this summer and take the time to reconnect. Even if you can't get away, plan a special time for a picnic, bike ride, walks in the park, a water balloon fight or contest, family games, rent or borrow a special movie, etc. Simple meals keep the cooking and cleaning time down so you will still feel nourished and rested. Give yourself permission to let go and nourish your soul!

Blood Drive Results

Our most recent blood drive on June 14 was a great success. Our goal was 46 units of blood and we were able to collect 52 units. Thank you to all who donated. Your gift of life helped to save a possible 156 lives!

Thanks to Mary Adkins who helped promote the drive and Pat Sagert who served her famous “Soup Kitchen Spaghetti” and to Marcia Capp, Chris Alverson and Carolyn Clancy who provided the rest of the meal to the Red Cross workers and our volunteers. Lastly, thanks to the bakers who donated the delicious cookies—always a big hit with everyone!

Our next blood drive is scheduled for Sunday, November 22, 2009. Mark your calendars!

A Family Perspective

By Bud Ozar

Jesus tells us in today's Gospel, "I am the true bread of life, whoever comes to me will never hunger. Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life." If we are what we eat, then perhaps it is time to put your family on the Gospel Diet and devote more time and energy to the "bread of life."

"Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not." Exodus 16:4

God frowns upon it when we take or keep more than we need. When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, everything they hoarded became wormy and rotten. In the same way, God calls us today to be content with a fair portion and to be willing to share the rest.
